

Drivers

The UPDD driver supports a great number of pointer devices, mainly touchscreen, whiteboards and pen.

Our driver is utilised when native touch support in current operating systems does not offer the functionality required or does not support old legacy devices or you may have a custom requirement that can be achieved with our driver.

This section covers driver related issues.

Touch-Base Support

<http://support.touch-base.com/Documentation/50127/Drivers>